

Warranty

Lamar Technologies LLC warrants to the first user of its Electrical Products, whether purchased as a part of a new aircraft or as a spare or replacement part, that Products will be free from defects in materials and workmanship and will conform to the Lamar specifications and drawings to which they were manufactured for a period of twelve (12) months from date of installation by the company or 500 engine operating hours, whichever ever shall first occur.

Written notice of any claimed defect or nonconformance must be received by Lamar or an Authorized Product Support Center within thirty (30) days after the defect is discovered. Provided said written notice is received, Lamar shall, at its sole option:

- (A) Repair at its factory or at a Lamar Authorized Product Support Center the defective or nonconforming Product or component part thereof;
- (B) Replace from its factory the defective or nonconforming Product or component part thereof, or;
- (C) Issue a credit to the first purchaser (distributor or OEM) in the amount of the then current applicable net price for said Product. Returns to Lamar or a Lamar Authorized Product Support Center shall be prepaid.

This Warranty does not extend or apply to any Product or component part thereof which has been determined by Lamar or Lamar Authorized Product Support Center examination to have been damaged or altered as a result of misuse, tampering, abuse, neglect, improper storage, lack of proper maintenance or overhaul, repair by any other party other than Lamar or a Lamar Authorized Product Support Center, or other components of the aircraft engine which are not the Products of Lamar.

This Warranty does not extend to any labor charges whatsoever, including labor charges for repair, replacement, disassembly, reassembly, inspection, re-inspection, test or retest of the Product or component part thereof, except for the labor provided at no charge to the first user by Lamar or a Lamar Authorized Product Support Center in repairing a Product or component part thereof.

The use of unauthorized parts in Lamar Technologies LLC Products constitutes an alteration or modification and voids all warranties. Lamar will accept no warranty or tort liability for Lamar Electrical Product containing unauthorized parts. The operator and/or overhaul facility responsible for installation of unauthorized parts shall expect to have the sole and full liability for property damage or injury, including death, arising from any malfunction of the electrical products in which such parts are installed.

This Warranty specifies the sole warranty obligation of Lamar with respect to the products and is in lieu of and excludes all other warranties including the implied warranties of the merchantability and fitness for a particular purpose, and in no event shall Lamar be liable for any incidental damages, other than the transportation charges covered by this warranty, or for any consequential or special damages of any nature or kind.

WARNING: The use of unauthorized parts in Lamar Technologies LLC Products can cause Product malfunctions which could result in damage to, or destruction of, equipment and injury to and/or death of personnel. Use only Lamar Technologies LLC Replacement Parts as specified in the Parts Breakdown Section.
